

HALLOWEEN 2019

Every October 31st, kids in the United States dress up in costumes and go trick or treating to celebrate Halloween. Kids in costume knock on doors at houses and ask “Trick or Treat?” Then people give them candy.

When I was a kid I dressed up as Batman. Before Halloween, people go to the pumpkin patch and then carve faces into their pumpkins. Next we put a candle inside and call it a ‘Jack-o-Lantern’. There are many Jack O lanterns with different carvings at houses on Halloween. People buy candy before the holiday, so that they can give it out to the kids. My cousins Conner and Annabelle dressed up as a dragon and a princess this year. I used to love getting candy but now I like to give out candy and see all the different costumes.

This year I was in Guadeloupe on October 31st. I was at a grocery store when I saw a bunch of kids outside with costumes on. I was with an American named Alex and we bought a lot of candy to give away to the kids. This year I gave out Twix bars. I did not expect to see kids dressed up in Guadeloupe but it made me really happy. The costumes were good too!

➤ QUIZ

1. Is Halloween at the beginning, middle, or end of October?
2. What did Jacques dress up as for Halloween when he was a kid?
3. What is a Jack-o-Lantern?
4. What did Jacques' cousins dress up as for Halloween?
5. Where was Jacques on Halloween in 2019?
6. What type of candy did Jacques give out for Halloween this year?