

Hello guys, good morning, everyone.

My name is Suella Edward, I was born in St Lucia in the community of Castries, therefore I am a St Lucian. I live in Martinique and from Fort de France. I came to Martinique with my family, my mother, my father, sisters, and brothers. St Lucia is a very beautiful island found in the Caribbean and can be seen in the south of Martinique. The capital of St Lucia is Castries, the island has a population of 179,651 citizens with a surface area of 617 square kilometers, its's main language is English and second language creole. St Lucia is an independent island since the 22nd of February 1969 and last celebrated it's 44th year anniversary.

St Lucian is well known for its special Friday night jams in the community of Gros-Ilets and is in the north of the island.
